A MESSAGE FROM PASTOR RAYMOND

We come now to a very powerful act of the evidence to the determination of one seeking healing and to the individual awareness of Christ's power to heal being exhausted from Him. As we have been made aware we must be willing to step out in faith and put forth (into practice) every possible effort that we can to reach out and touch Jesus Christ. One such example (giving to us many insights) is the healing of the woman with the issue of blood. I recognise that we have over the years looked into this wonderful situation of healing but today let us again look at what the Bible has to say and let these forth coming revelations touch our lives. Amen. This woman pressed her way through the crowd, (a willingness most evident) to touch Christ. Hear the words she kept repeating over and over as she willingly sought out Christ. "If only I can get to Him . . . if only I can get near Him . . .if I can somehow get into His presence, even this close . . . if only I can somehow touch just the hem of His garment" and if she could what did she carry within her? "I know I will be made whole". Lets set the scene. Jesus was once again in Capernaum, for He had just returned from Gadara. It was here (if you remember) where Jesus had spoken the word and delivered the demon possessed man. (another area in which as Christians we should all have understanding about) for Jesus cast the legion of demons into a herd of swine. But now in Capernaum a multitude of people were waiting for Him and they came to meet Him. Luke 8 v 40 – "Now as Jesus was returning the people welcomed Him, for they all had been expecting Him". And we go on to read that it was here that Jairus, the ruler of the synagogue came and fell at Jesus' feet pleading with Him to come heal his daughter who was lying at the point of death at home. Picture now the situation of what is happening. Jesus returns, crowds welcomed Him, Jairus comes to Jesus, falls at His feet begging Him to come to his home where his only daughter is at death's door, only 12 years old. (Luke 8 v 41-42, read it if you will). Notice the response of Jesus. Compassion flowed out of Jesus' heart to Jairus and He responds immediately. Please take a moment to recognise Jesus' compassion to each of us. Thank Him now and thank Him that He is always able to respond IMMEDIATELY to our situations whatever they are.

"THANK YOU JESUS. I really mean it. THANK YOU".

We must notice that every movement of Christ was for a divine purpose. Jesus did not have a formula or set pattern when it came to healing the sick. Jesus dealt with each one individually, as He does today, as He was directed by the Spirit of God.

Today, Jesus deals with us individually. He knows what we need and He knows how to enable us to find it. In the Name of Jesus . . . AMEN.

"Father, I thank You that You know me as an individual. You know how I am able to best respond to You. I come to You NOW, in Jesus Name, with my prayers

In Jesus Name . . . AMEN.
